

12 February 2009

Hall	08:30	Registration
Aula	09:30 - 10:30	Opening session Deny Smeets, HAN University, NL Welcome at the HAN Lineke Snellers, NL Welcome by the NGI Anneke Hacquebard, NL Welcome at the working conference
Aula	10:30 - 11:00	Coffee break
Aula	11:00 - 11:45	Plenary session André Richier, European Commission, Directorate General Enterprise and Industry e-Skills for Europe: State-of-Play and Next Steps
Aula	11:45 - 12:30	Plenary session Terry Erdle, CompTIA, Senior Vice President, Skills Certification IT Certification: Trends and Impacts
Hall	12:30 - 12:45	Refreshments
Aula back	12:45 - 13:30	Lunch
E0.07	13:30 - 14:15	Parallel sessions Lillian Cassel, Vilanova University, USA The Role of the Masters Degree in Professional Qualification
E0.08		René Bakker, HAN University, NL Open Education for ICT Professionals – the Network Open University
E0.09		Hans Frederik, Cepis, NL CEPIS Task Force Professionalism Agenda
Aula	14:15 - 15:00	Plenary session Alexa Joyce, European SchoolNet, UK
Hall	15:00 - 15:30	Coffee break
E0.07 E0.08 E0.09 E0.14 E0.15	15:30 - 17:00	Workshops WS1: ICT certification and credentials WS2: Who is an ICT professional? WS3: Image of ICT profession, quantities and quality of students needed WS4: How to connect education on ICT to business needs for ICT qualified personnel and vice versa? WS5: One ICT profession or many?
Hall	17:00 - 17:45	Refreshments
Burgers Zoo	17:45 - 18:00 18:00 - 21:00	Bus transfer Conference Dinner
	21:00	Bus transfer

13 February 2009

Hall	08:30	Registration
E0.07	09:00 - 09:45	Parallel sessions Deny Smeets, HAN University, NL ICT- Education and profession in international perspective (comparison of Netherlands, USA, Japan and China)
E0.08		Jan Dirk Schagen, HBO-I Foundation, NL Competence Cube Bachelor of ICT
E0.09		Roberto Bellini, AICA, IT An integrated vision of the structure of ICT Certification Market
E0.14		Arthur Tatnall, Victoria University, AU Issues in the Undergraduate Education and Lifelong Learning of ICT Professionals
E0.15		Lex Hendriks, EXIN, NL Role based qualification programs for ICT professionals: IT Service Management and ISO/IEC 20000
Aula	09:45 - 10:30	Plenary session Luk Vervenne, Synergetics, BE Cross-organisational competency management: challenges, standards & opportunities
Hall	10:30 - 11:00	Coffee break
E0.07	11:00 - 11:45	Parallel sessions Helmut Schauer, University of Zurich, CH E-Coaching for Project Communication to Increase IT Project Success
E0.08		Clementina Marinoni, Fondazione Politecnico di Milano, IT e-Competence and qualification Frameworks as a Guide to Understand Career Paths and Training, Opportunities in the ICT Field
E0.09		Paolo Schgör, AICA, CEN/ISSS ICT Skills, IT The Next Generation of ICT Skills
E0.14		Peter Weiss, University of Karlsruhe, DE A Common Language To Achieve Transparency of ICT Certifications
E0.15		Sara Rodrigues, Ryerson University, CA Diversity and the Skills Shortage in the Canadian Information and Communications Technology Sector, A Critical Interrogation of Discourse
E0.07	11:45 - 12:30	Workshops WS1: ICT certification and credentials
E0.08		WS2: Who is an ICT professional?
E0.09		WS3: Image of ICT profession, quantities and quality of students needed
E0.14		WS4: How to connect education on ICT to business needs for ICT qualified personnel and vice versa?
E0.15		WS5: One ICT profession or many?
Aula back	12:30 - 13:30	Lunch
	13:30 - 14:15	Workshops continued
	14:15 - 18:00	Excursion

14 February 2009

09:00-09:15 E0.13	Registration local representatives
09.15 – 09.45 13.30 – 14.15	Welcome local representatives Lex Bijlsma, Open Universiteit Nederland, NL Discussion with Local Representatives (Dutch)
14:15 – 15:00	Workshop local representatives
15:30 – 16:15	Workshop continued
16:15 – 16:30	Closing Workshop

Hall	08:30	Registration
E0.07	09:00 - 09:45	Parallel sessions Barrie Thompson, University of Sunderland, UK Bridging the Professional Skills Gap: A report on an investigation into best practices and industry/academic links
E0.08		Erik Barendsen, Radboud University, NL Academic competences in a computing science curriculum
E0.14		Harrie van Seters, HAN University, NL Integrating professional practices in a vocational ICT curriculum
E0.15		Claudia Steghuis, CapGemini, NL Positioning the Enterprise Architect: what are its roles, responsibilities and competences?
Aula	09:45 - 10:30	Plenary session Roger Johnson, IP3, IFIP, UK International Professional Practice Partnership (IP3) – Achievements and Challenges
Hall	10:30 - 11:00	Coffee break
Aula	11:00 - 11:45	Plenary session Lex Bijlsma, Open Universiteit Nederland, NL Professional distance education
E0.09	11:45 - 12:30	Parallel sessions John O'Sullivan, Thames Communications, UK Convergence of Parallel Universes: Education, Certification and Professionalism
E0.14		Joke Jansen, HBO-I Foundation, NL Organization and development of professional ict-studies in the Netherlands
E0.15		Agostino Cortesi, Universita` Ca' Foscari, Venezia, IT Informatics Education after the downfall of the myth of growth
Aula back	12:30 - 13:30	Lunch
E0.07	13:30 - 14:15	Parallel sessions Roumen Nikolov, Sofia University, BG Towards University 2.0: A Space where Academic Education Meets Corporate Training
E0.09		Hans Frederik, ALEXIS bv, NL Professionalism in ICT, who is accountable and to what extent?
E0.13		Lex Bijlsma, Open Universiteit Nederland, NL Discussion with Local Representatives (Dutch)
E0.14		Guido Bakema, HAN University, NL ICT education mismatches
E0.15		Robert Stoyan, University of Zurich, CH Challenges of Selecting IT Personnel Online
E0.07	14:15 - 15:00	Workshops WS1: ICT certification and credentials
E0.08		WS2: Who is an ICT professional?
E0.09		WS3: Image of ICT profession, quantities and
E0.13		WS6: Local Representatives (Dutch)
E0.14		WS4: How to connect education on ICT to business needs for ICT qualified personnel and vice versa?
E0.15		WS5: One ICT profession or many?
Hall	15:00 - 15:30	Coffee break
	15:30 - 16:15	Workshops continued
	16:30	End of conference day

15 February 2009

Hall	09:00	Registration
Aula	09:30 - 09:45	Report WS1: ICT certification and credentials
Aula	09:45 -10:00	Report WS2: Who is an ICT professional?
Aula	10:00 -10:15	Report WS3: Image of ICT profession, quantities and quality of students needed
Aula	10:15 -10:30	Report WS4: How to connect education on ICT to business needs for ICT qualified personnel and vice versa?
Aula	10:30 -10:45	Report WS5: One ICT profession or many?
Aula	10:45 -11:00	Conference statements
Hall	11:00 -11:30	Coffee break
Aula	11:30 -12:30	Round Table Chair Roy van Dalm, HAN University, NL Keynote comment Lex Bijlsma, Open Universiteit Nederland, NL Cross-workshop discussion
Aula	12:30 -12:45	Closing conference
Hall	12:45 -13:00	Refreshments
Aula back	13:00 -14:00	Lunch
	14:00 -18:45	Excursion

Programme Information and Changes

Forum and Round Table

The envisaged Sunday morning Forum has been replaced by a Round Table. After the Workshop presentations and conference statements, workshop outcomes will be discussed, chaired by Roy van Dalm. Keynote speaker Lex Bijlsma will comment on workshop outcomes and conference statements. This will be followed by a cross workshop discussion between all participants.

Local Representatives

On Saturday local representatives will attend the conference. They will participate in the plenary session and may attend one of the parallel sessions. After lunch they will follow a separate programme.

Conference dinner

If you want to join the conference dinner on Thursday and did not register for it, please apply to the information desk before 14:00.

On Thursday from 16:00 until 17:30 the change rooms of the gym will be available.

Excursions

If you want to participate in the Friday afternoon excursion to the Kröller Müller Museum and did not register for it, please apply to the information desk before Friday 11:00.

The excursion on Friday afternoon to the Dutch Wine Museum has been cancelled.

If you want to participate in the Sunday afternoon excursion to Arnhem Historical and Memorial Places and did not register for it, please apply to the information desk before Sunday 11:00.

Luggage

On Thursday, Friday and Sunday luggage can be kept in a locked room during excursions. On the way back the bus will stop at the HAN and next at the hotels. (Tulip Inn, Rijnhotel and Best Western)